

Love and Restore Our Earth

by Christine Cianciosi

Be still and hear me.
Listen to my emotions.

Let us build a vision for
a better planet.

Like the sky
that has no timing,
we need to help bees
continue thriving.

Let us continue to grow
and teach our children well.

The beginning of a tree
starts with you and me.

Carry that seed,
to forests in need.

Love and restore our Earth.

I AM in your hands -
live gently upon me.
